Team Accountability Doc

Week of April 7, 2026 — Pre-launch execution phase

Context

Website goes live Monday. Beta launches June. These are the four things that must happen this week — no exceptions.
No more city leader roles. No titles. Every person has one task, one deadline, one way to prove it's done.

This week's priorities

1. Website live by Sunday night
2. First reel approved and posted
3. Templates updated with city context
4. Community building lists started — 15 names per city

Task breakdown

Every person. One task. One deadline. One proof.

Person	Task this week	Deadline	Proof of done

Meeting cadence

Day	Format	Owner
Wednesday	Everyone drops one update in group chat — no call needed	Prapti to collect + flag blockers to Anadi
Friday 10 PM	Weekly team call — progress, blockers, next week tasks	Ayan chairs, Anadi tracks action items

Wednesday check-in is not a call. It is one message per person in the group chat. Takes 2 minutes.

Community building Team

One job each. Nothing else. Prove it with a screenshot or a list.

Person	Task this week	Deadline	Proof of done
Vishwajeet (Delhi)	Add 10 relevant college students to Delhi WhatsApp group	Friday meeting	Screenshot of group member count
Arshpreet (Mumbai)	Add 10 relevant college students to Mumbai WhatsApp group	Friday meeting	Screenshot of group member count
Himika (Mumbai)	Scrape 10 upcoming Mumbai events — name, date, venue, link	Wednesday check-in	List shared in group chat

Rules of the team

Rule	What it means
Tasks not titles	No more city head roles. Everyone has one specific task with a deadline.
Silence = out	If you go quiet for 5+ days with no update, you are off the team. No warnings.
Proof of done	Every task needs proof — screenshot, link, doc. 'I did it' is not proof.
One chain of command	All blockers go to Anadi first. Anadi escalates to Ayan only if needed.
Team members get one job	City team get one concrete task per week. Not strategy. Not planning. One job.

From Ayan — CEO, Milo

We are two months from beta. Every week counts now. Show up.
